- a. The awarding of 'Accreditation of Prior Learning' (APL), and 'Accreditation of Prior Experimental Learning' (APEL)
 - b. 'Internal Credit Transfers'
 - c. 'Continuing Credit Transfer'
- 1.2 This document is based on Middlesex University Regulations, [<http://www.mdx.ac.uk/regulations>] and is informed by the principles outlined in the QAA 'Guidelines for the Accreditation of Prior Learning' 2011, 2022.

2. Definitions

- 2.1. Accreditation of Prior Learning [APL] is the overall term used by LST for the recognition and award of, academic credit on the basis of demonstrated learning that has occurred at some time in the past. This learning may have come about as the result of previous academic study or as the result of previous professional or ministerial qualifications. The previous learning must be relevant to the programme for which a student is applying, and if their application is successful, the credit will count towards their chosen programme of study.
- 2.2. Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning [APEL] is the overall term used by LST for the recognition and award of credit for learning based on prior experience (e.g. from professional, ministry, community or volunteer experience), which has not previously been assessed and/or awarded academic credit.
- 2.3. No APL credit may be given for partial completion of a course/module unit. Credit can only be given for whole units/modules, where consideration has been given to mapping the Intended Learning Outcomes of the unit to the evidence provided of prior learning.
- 2.4. APL & APEL is used at LST to enable a student to gain;
- a. Advanced Standing on a programme: for example commence their studies at a higher level than the normal entry point to that programme.
 - b. Credit against some of the module learning outcomes of a programme that will count towards a final award.
 - c. Internal Student Credit Transfer describes the situation where a LST student wishes to transfer their credit from one LST undergraduate programme to another.
 - d. Continuing Student Credit Transfer relates to a LST student who has successfully completed the programme of studies that they were registered on (Cert HE / Dip HE) but now desires to continue their studies at the next level (Dip HE/ BA).
- 2.5 Closed Music and Worship programmes refers to the following programmes:
BA Theology and Music

BA Theology, Music and Worship
BA Theology and Creative Musicianship
BA Theology and Worship
